Next Thursday, February 28th, at 4 o'clock P. M., in the Jefferson Club Miss Mira Blair will give one o h r ip lectures on "Venice"—a subject which will bring out Miss Blair's well known powers of description and draw upon her store of tradition and romance, to say nothing of her art lore.

Beginning with March 5th, /Miss Atmspaugh will give a sories of lecture-readings before the club. The first reading will be from the poems of Sidney Lanier, the second from Eugene Field's poems, the third and the fourth from the poems of Robert Browning.

Lecture reading is a new feature in the literary circles of Richmond. Evidently a useful future awaits such work.

Miss Aunspaugh has developed this plan as a means of bringing her audience into sympathy with the poet by lecture, and under the direct influence of his thought by reading his poems.

Under the auspices of Mrs. John B.

Under the auspices of Mrs. John B. Lightfoot's Circle of King's Daughters and for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten and Day Nursery, Miss Maria Blair will deliver a lecture on the "Life and Legends of the Madonna" at the Woman's Club on Friday, March 6th, at 3 P. M. After the lecture a delightful musical programme will be rendered by a select quartette, with Miss Mamie Harrison as soprano and Miss Frances Diggs as contrailo. Several Ave Marias will be sung, and by request some of the old sung, and by request some of the old Scotch and English ballards.
